Position: Multiple Positions
Institution: Indiana University at South Bend
Location: Indiana
Date posted: 9/20/2002

INDIANA UNIVERSITY SOUTH BEND
SOUTH BEND, INDIANA

Indiana University South Bend is a comprehensive, regional institution that offers almost 100 degree and certificate-granting programs to 7,500 students. IUSB serves the urban, suburban, and rural communities of north central Indiana and southwestern Michigan and has a significant international student body. It is the third largest of Indiana University's eight campuses. Located in a midwestern area of unique strength in higher education, South Bend has easy access to the cultural and social advantages of Chicago, as well as a vibrant local culture. Cost of living is one of the most reasonable in the nation.

IUSB is seeking qualified applicants for the following positions:

ARTS

Fine Arts: Assistant Professor of Sculpture. Teach three undergraduate courses/semester. M.F.A. in sculpture required, university teaching experience preferred. Expectation of active or developing professional career. Respond to Alan Larkin, Raclin School of the Arts. E-Mail: alarkin@iusb.edu.

Mass Communication: Assistant Professor to teach undergraduate courses including intro, law, history and ethics, among others; also courses in public relations. Applicant must demonstrate research potential and teaching excellence. Ph.D. required. Respond to Dr. Lynette M. Lashley, Raclin School of the Arts; E-Mail: llashley@iusb.edu

Music: Assistant Professor to teach woodwinds; secondary teaching assignments may include music history & literature, music appreciation, or conducting. DMA and professional experience preferred, MM and with experience considered. Respond to Michael Lasater, Chair, Music Search Comm., Raclin School of the Arts; E-Mail: mlasater@iusb.edu
Theatre: Assistant Professor of scenic design. Teach two courses/semester and design or supervise student designers in five production season. M.F.A. in scenic design required. Respond, with up to ten images of representative work, to Randy Colborn, Raclin School of the Arts; E-Mail: rcolborn@iusb.edu

Theatre: Assistant Professor/T.D./lighting designer. Teach two courses/semester, oversee execution of five production season and supervise student crew. M.F.A. in technical direction or design required. Respond, with up to ten images of representative work, to Randy Colborn, Raclin School of the Arts; E-Mail: rcolborn@iusb.edu

BUSINESS & ECONOMICS
Management Information Systems: Assistant/Associate Professor to teach Graduate and undergraduate courses in MIS Area. The IUSB School of Business and Economics is accredited by the AACSB International. Applicant must demonstrate research potential and teaching excellence, Ph.D or DBA from an AACSB-accredited school in MIS or a closely-related field. Preference will be given to individuals who show promise of excellence in teaching and research. Experience in teaching graduate courses in information technology management area is highly desirable. Respond to Dr. Asghar Sabbaghi, School of Business and Economics, Phone: 574-237-4387 FAX: 574-237-4866; E-Mail: sabbaghi@iusb.edu.

EDUCATION
Elementary Education (4 positions): Assistant Professors to teach graduate and undergraduate courses in one of the following areas: math education, social studies education, reading and language arts. Ability to also teach foundations courses such as general methods, research methods, and classroom management preferred. Applicant must demonstrate research potential and teaching excellence. Ph.D. or Ed.D. strongly preferred, ABD considered. P12 teaching experience strongly preferred. Respond to Dr. Dan Holm, School of Education.

Special Education: Assistant Professor to teach graduate and undergraduate courses in special education. Applicant must demonstrate research potential and teaching excellence. Ph.D. or Ed.D. strongly preferred, ABD considered. P12 teaching experience strongly preferred. Respond to Dr. Denise Smith, School of Education.

Counseling and Human Services: Assistant Professor to teach graduate courses in school counseling. Ability to also teach foundations courses such as educational psychology and communications skills preferred. Applicant must demonstrate research potential and teaching excellence. Ph.D. or Ed.D. strongly preferred, ABD considered. P12 teaching and counseling experience strongly preferred. Respond to Dr. Joy Shaw, School of Education.

Educational Leadership: Assistant Professor to teach graduate courses leading to principal's license. Ability to teach other courses, such as foundations courses, is preferred. Applicant must demonstrate research potential and teaching excellence. Ph.D. or Ed.D. strongly preferred, ABD considered. P12 teaching and administrative experience strongly preferred. Respond to Dr. Joy Shaw, School of Education.

LIBERAL ARTS & SCIENCES

Biological Sciences: Assistant Professor whose areas of expertise may include environmental physiology, developmental plasticity, toxicology, immunology, or related fields. Ph.D. and post-doctoral experience required. Teaching duties will include undergraduate anatomy and physiology and/or introductory biology, as well as courses in area of expertise. Respond to Dr. Thomas Clark, Department of Biological Sciences.

Computer and Information Sciences: Assistant Professor. A Ph.D. in Computer Science, Informatics or closely related area is required. Candidates with expertise in areas such as software engineering, or areas within informatics will be given preference. Successful candidate will be expected to teach both undergraduate and graduate courses. Respond to Search Committee Chair, Computer and Information Sciences.

English: Assistant Professor with Ph.D. in nineteenth-century American literature. Expertise in African American literature desirable. Applicant should have ability to teach first-year students and to develop a range of undergraduate courses. All members of the English department regularly teach expository writing courses; enthusiasm about first-year writing will be an asset. Respond to Search Committee Chair, Department of English.

History: Assistant Professor of History to teach undergraduate Ancient and Medieval and introductory courses including Western Civilization survey; or Assistant Professor of History to teach undergraduate East Asian History and introductory courses including World History survey. Ph.D. required. Respond to Dr. Patrick Furlong, Department of History.

Philosophy: Assistant Professor with expertise in applied ethics, with concentration in bioethics. Ph.D. required. Should also be able to teach undergraduate courses in philosophy of religion, religion and American culture, and critical thinking. Respond to Search Committee Chair, Department of Philosophy.

Physics: Assistant Professor, Geophysics. Ph.D. in physics, physical geology/geophysics, environmental physics, atmospheric physics, or physical oceanography. Teaching duties include introductory and advanced undergraduate courses in geology and possibly physics or astronomy. The successful candidate will be expected to establish a research program involving undergraduates. At least one year of postdoctoral research experience or equivalent is preferred. Respond to Geophysics Search Committee, Department of Physics and Astronomy.

Psychology: Assistant Professor in Human Experimental Psychology. To teach Experimental Methods and Introductory Psychology and other courses in specialization. The ability to teach Human Learning or Neuropsychology is desirable, applied psychology especially welcome. No animal facilities available; otherwise, research area is open. A vigorous program of research, teaching undergraduate and master's courses in applied psychology are expected. Respond to Dr. John McIntosh, Department of Psychology.

Spanish, Department Chair: Prof./Assoc. Prof. of Spanish to serve as chair of Foreign Languages Dept. Demonstrated excellence and commitment to teaching and a record of scholarly achievement. Ph.D., native/near native fluency in Spanish and excellent command of English are required. Field open; interest in and/or experience in second language acquisition a plus. All levels of Spanish taught. Respond to Dr. Linda Chen, Department of Foreign Languages.

Spanish: Assistant Professor of Spanish in Dept. of Foreign Languages. Native/near native fluency in Spanish and excellent command of English are required. Field open; expertise or interest in some of the following desirable: second language acquisition, Hispanic literatures and cultures, Spanish in professional programs (education, business, health), study abroad. All levels of Spanish taught. ABD considered (rank: lecturer). Respond to: Dr. Linda Chen, Department of Foreign Languages.

LIBRARY SERVICES
Library: Assistant Librarian to share in reference and instruction responsibilities and to provide leadership in an ongoing public relations and outreach program. ALA-MLS required. Respond to Judith Gottwald, Schurz Library.

NURSING & HEALTH PROFESSIONS
Nursing: Assistant/Associate Professors (2 positions) to teach undergraduate courses in medical-surgical nursing or nursing administration/leadership. Master's degree in nursing required.
Doctoral degree in nursing preferred. Successful applicants who do not have the doctorate must be enrolled in a doctoral program in nursing at the time of initial appointment. All applicants must hold or be eligible to hold a current Indiana Nursing License. Respond with vitae and names of three references to Mary Basolo-Kunzer, IUSB School of Nursing. Review of applicants will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled.

Nursing: Clinical Lecturer (non-tenure track) to teach undergraduate courses in medical-surgical nursing or nursing administration/leadership. RN plus Master's degree in nursing, teaching experience at college level, and certification in area of expertise required. All applicants must hold or be eligible to hold a current Indiana Nursing License. Respond with vitae and names of three references to Mary Basolo-Kunzer, IUSB School of Nursing. Review of applicants will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled.

SOCIAL WORK
Social Work: Asst. Professor, tenure track, 10 mo. position to teach graduate level classes in HBSE and Research. Qualifications include masters degree in social work from accredited program and a min. of two years post MSW practice experience. Earned doctorate in social work as related field is preferred; ABD may be considered. Work and/or teaching experience in Family and Child Welfare preferred. Send vitae and names of three references to Dr. Paul R. Newcomb, MSW Program Director. Review of application will begin immediately and end on January 3, 2003 or until position is filled.

CONTACT INFORMATION
Please send appropriate information to the individual listed above to: Indiana University South Bend, 1700 Mishawaka Avenue, P.O. Box 7111, So. Bend, IN 46634-7111. Review of applications begins November 15, 2002, and continue until positions are filled.

IUSB is strongly committed to achieving excellence through cultural diversity. The University actively encourages applications and nominations of women, persons of color, applicants with disabilities, and members of other under-represented groups. IUSB is an AA/EEO employer. Visit http://www.iusb.edu for information on the campus.

Other ads from this institution

Categories: Advertising/public relations, Art, Art history.
Biology, Communications, Computer/information sciences, Early childhood/elementary education, Earth sciences/geology, Education administration/leadership, Education/school psychology, Foreign languages/literatures, History, Human development, Law/legal studies, Librarians/library administration, Library sciences, Management information systems, Music, Nursing, Other communications, Philosophy, Physics, Psychology, Social work, Special education/gifted education, Theater