Multimedia Arts and Technology

Fall 2017

INFO-I310

Instructor: Dr. Eric Souther (erisouth@iusb.edu)

Prereq: One of the following, INFO-I 308, CSCI-C 243, TEL-T 283, INMS-N 300 or Instructor approval   When: M & W 2:30-3:45pm

Description:

The study of the evolution of media arts and underlying principles of communication. Application development paradigms in current practice.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

Students will be able to research and solve technological problems.
Students will be able to produce creative applications/software.
Students will be able to create interactive media for public exhibition.

Selected Software: Adobe Premiere Pro, Adobe Audition, Adobe After Effects, and Adobe Media Encoder, Adobe Photoshop, Adobe Illustrator (available through IU-Ware), Max, and Processing.